The Advance Collective Newsletter

SPRING • UPDATES • MARCH 2026

At Won't She Do It™ through its proprietary service program titled The Advance Collective, offers a transformative training experience designed to uniquely certify women as advocate leaders.

This program is created to support women navigating life-changing transitions, including job loss, housing instability, and challenging marital separations, equipping them with the tools, confidence, and leadership capacity to rise with purpose.

ADVANCE COLLECTIVE TESTIMONY

"As an operations executive, I've spent my career streamlining systems for corporations. Joining the Advance Collective allowed me to apply that same level of precision to a human crisis. Working within the 90-Day Roadmap is rewarding because I know I'm offering hope while working alongside with other women moving in lockstep with me. It is the most impactful use of my professional skills I have ever found."
